saturday 7th November 2009 at 10:30am, turquoise loop is recording a live instrumental cd of mellow eastern sitar vibes with lounge beats at the bodhi tree bookshop café (cnr oxford & scarb beach rd, mt hawthorn).

this is one of the coolest café's and run by some of the nicest people in this little corner of the universe. it attracts many musicians and holistic thinkers from around perth who enjoy contributing to the blissful ambience. satyam has been playing sitar there on tuesday mornings and throughout summer turquoise loop will be making appearances on the odd sunday.

turquoise loop will be launching this recorded cd on saturday 5th december 2009 at 11:00am where we will be playing live.

hope to see you there...
